

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 1, 2009

Contact: Dan Smith, executive director
Phone: (515) 267-1115

NEW SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS OF IOWA LEADERS TAKE OFFICE

DES MOINES, Iowa – Five school leaders today begin their terms on the of School

Administrators of Iowa executive committee:

- Theron Schutte, superintendent of Bettendorf Community School District, will serve as president;
- Linda Reysack, principal at Harrison Elementary in Cedar Rapids, is the president-elect;
- Angela Huseman, Tri-Center High School principal in Neola, was elected vice president;
- Kathy Enslin, superintendent of Denver Community School District, serves on behalf of superintendents; and
- John Lawrence, principal of West Middle School in Muscatine, is the secondary principal representative on the committee.

“SAI is fortunate to have these leaders representing the association,” expressed Dan Smith, executive director of SAI. “They bring knowledge and experience in education to these positions, which will benefit SAI in our efforts to assist school administrators in creating a quality learning experience for all students.” As officers, these individuals will work together with SAI leadership to develop and implement programs and policies to serve the needs of school administrators in Iowa.

SAI, a statewide organization founded in 1987, represents more than 2000 Iowa educational administrators. SAI's mission is to support, encourage and develop Iowa's educational leaders and learners.